

Inclusive Museum Conference

8-11 July 2009

The State Library of Queensland presents a free public lecture

Challenge and Change: The SA National Gallery of Iziko Museums Cape Town in post-Apartheid South Africa

With international guest speaker Professor Henry Charles Bredekamp, CEO of Iziko Museums, Cape Town

South Africa of the 21st century is a nation in the making after an era of almost four centuries of colonialism and apartheid. It is engaged in discussions about re-imagining its non-racial and ethnic identities within the context of post-colonial Africa and a globalising world.

Join Professor Bredekamp for this insightful lecture as he focuses on the importance of historical research and Indigenous knowledge systems in bringing about effective changes and understanding of the notion of Indigenous People in post-colonial Africa.

Professor Bredekamp is the CEO of Iziko Museums of Cape Town, whose mission is to manage and promote its unique combination of South Africa's heritage collections, sites and services for the benefit of present and future generations.

When Thursday 9 July, 5.30pm

Where slq Auditorium 1, level 2, State Library of Queensland

Free No booking required

For further information visit www.slq.qld.gov.au

